

GATEWAY PROJECT ODOR ASSESSMENT

There are no products used or produced on the site that have strong odors. Only pure oxygen is released as a byproduct of the hydrogen production process which is of course odorless and already constitutes more than 20% of the atmosphere.

Therefore, there will be no unusual odors from that facility that could travel offsite. This is consistent with the 2012 Final Generic Environmental Impact Statement Findings Statement.